

2020 GLOBE Program Europe and Eurasia Virtual Regional Meeting

Agenda – draft October 14

2020 Europe and Eurasia Virtual Regional Meeting will take place via Zoom.

Times are given in CET (Prague time), it means UT + 1 hour.

Time	Session	Session Description	Speakers
27th October, Tuesday
GLOBE Community Meeting for all participants – country coordinators, teachers, scientists, students and GLOBE friends
13:40 – 14:00	Check-in of all participants	Participants are connecting to zoom and solving technical issues	All participants
14:00 – 14:30	Opening of the Regional Meeting	Introduction of participants Agenda overview Technical instructions	RCO and guests
14:30 – 15:15	GLOBE Program 2020/2021 – what is planned ahead	Overview of the GLOBE Program development that is planned for next year	Tony Murphy, GLOBE Program Implementation Office
15 min	Break
15:30 – 17:00	Water Bodies Collaboration and GLOBE Hydrosphere – Let's talk about Water	Combined session on collaboration around the topic of water: Presentations by students, teachers and scientists. Discussion on the opportunities for international collaboration.	Selected students, teachers and scientists

2020 GLOBE Program Europe and Eurasia Virtual Regional Meeting

28th October, Wednesday

GLOBE Community Meeting for all participants – country coordinators, teachers, scientists, students and GLOBE friends

13:40 – 14:00	Check-in of all participants	Participants are connecting to zoom and solving technical issues	All participants
14:00 – 15:30	Market Place: The best of GLOBE presented by teachers	GLOBE Benefits the Environment: GLOBE activities that have direct impact on the environment or strengthen the environmental awareness of the local community GLOBE is a Platform for Collaboration: Examples of the collaborations that teachers and students made possible with GLOBE projects – from local to international level Questions from participants are most welcome!	Selected teachers and CCs
15 min	Break
15:45 – 16:45	GLOBE Science Café: Talks about science and life	Scientist talk about their passion for GLOBE and about the connections that science can make to the young generation. The discussion will be live moderated. Participants can ask via chat.	Scientists
16:45 – 17:15	Trainers and Mentor Trainers Certification Q&A	Q&A session on the new GLOBE Trainers and Mentor Trainers Certification that has been introduced this year: https://www.globe.gov/web/trainers Mostly for the GLOBE members who currently are in the role of a trainer or want to become trainers. Questions from audience can be submitted in advance as well as right at the session	Education WG

2020 GLOBE Program Europe and Eurasia Virtual Regional Meeting

29 th October, Thursday GLOBE Community Meeting for all participants – country coordinators, teachers, scientists, students and GLOBE friends
13:40 – 14:00	Check-in of all participants	Participants are connecting to zoom and solving technical issues	All participants
14:00 – 15:30	Hello, we are GLOBE Students!	Students will invite us to their school and around! They will talk about how they observe trees, rivers, forests, clouds, lakes, soils and take care of the environment. Combined session of student research presentations and video submissions. Questions from participants are most welcome!	Selected GLOBE Students
15 min	Break
15:45 – 16:30	GLOBE Technology: What is new at GLOBE website	New development of the Apps, Data Entry, Visualizations and website in general. Questions from audience can be submitted in advance as well as right at the session	David Overoye, SSAI, Technology WG
16:30 – 17:00	Curious Questions: Ask Region Coordination Office and GLOBE Program Implementation Office	Q&A to RCO and GIO Questions from audience can be submitted in advance as well as right at the session	Europe and Eurasia RCO Tony Murphy, GLOBE Implementation Office
17:00 – 17:15	Closing of the Regional Meeting	Final words and adjourn	RCO

Questions from participants can be asked in advance to the meeting sessions.

Add your questions to the list by clicking on the button:

Questions Wanted!